Minutes

Mrs. Ohrberg made a motion, seconded by Mrs. Hufnagle, and unanimously approved by all present, to accept the Minutes of December 2, 2025.

Holiday Lighting Contest

The winners from the 2025 contest were announced.

Winterfest

The Parks and Recreation Board brainstormed ideas for next year's Christmas tree, as there is a strong chance that the tree used in 2025 will not be able to be lit in 2026. Other ideas and comments were shared about the 2025 Winterfest celebration.

Softball Field Meeting Report

Ms. Tremmel gave the Parks and Recreation Board a summary of a meeting that took place between Borough employees, Pennridge High School's athletic department, and Deep Run softball staff in January. The topic of discussion was the condition of the softball fields at Druckenmiller Park.

Clean-Up Days

Both the Perkiomen Watershed Conservancy Clean-Up days and the Parks and Recreation Clean-Up days were discussed. Times and dates were confirmed.

Easter Egg Hunt

Dates, times, and supplies needed for the annual Easter Egg Hunt were discussed. Prize ideas were also brainstormed.

Unfinished Business

There was no unfinished business.

New Business

Mrs. Hallman asked everyone to think of any possible America 250 themed ideas or fun ways to add to the annual National Bell Ringing ceremony.
